

OFFICIAL RULES OF CREATIVE SHOCK

Eligibility Requirements:

Participants may apply either individually or in teams of 3-4
If registered individually, participants will be divided randomly into teams of 3-4 before the first round and will manage their work by themselves using any means of communication available to the members

All participants must be either Bachelor or Master students from any disciplines

A participant is NOT allowed to have more than one team

Organizers of previous years' Creative Shock are not allowed to apply

Team members are allowed to be from different universities and countries

Rules:

The teams which send solutions after the given deadline will be disqualified

All material that is related with the competition will be provided in English

All assignments of any competition round have to be solved and submitted in English

All the material provided for the participants must not be used for any commercial purposes without permission from Creative Shock organizers

All the expenses for the finalists in Vilnius will be covered (accommodation, food, various activities etc.) except travelling costs

Key dates:

Registration Sep 17 – Oct 08

First preliminary round Oct 09 – 15

Second preliminary round Oct 16 – 25

The finals Nov 29 - Dec 2